

Roles and Responsibilities of the Johnson Family Package Information

Summary

While visiting Chiefswood National Historic Site students explore the roles and responsibilities of Pauline Johnson and her family. Students will compare their own roles and responsibilities within their lives at school and home to the lives of the Johnson family. Students will then get the opportunity to make a wampum belt bracelet to represent their roles and responsibilities within their lives at school and home.

Description

The program will be 1.5-2 hours in length. Please allow your group additional time to browse and ask additional questions.

- Introduction and Museum etiquette
- Tour of Chiefswood National Historic Site that focuses on roles and responsibilities of the Johnson Family.
- Recap of Johnson Family roles and responsibilities
- Discussion on the differences and similarities of their own roles and responsibilities compared with the Johnson Family's
- Wampum Belt Bracelet craft

Grade Ranges

Suitable for Grades 1-3

Cost:

$12.00/person

- Price includes cost of Tour and materials for craft

For more information:

Krysta Longboat
Cultural Coordinator
Chiefswood National Historic Site
1037 Highway 54 and Chiefswood Road
P.O. Box 640 Ohsweken, ON NOA 1M0
(519)-758-5444 ext. 6025
coordinator@chiefswoodnhs.ca